

Please do not allow any institutions the right to call me at any time day or night that they want.
I feel I deserve the right not to be harrassed unsolicited. Just because I have did business with a company does not mean I want them calling me. McDonalds does not call me because I bought a Big Mac.
Neither should any other bank or business.
Thank you, Josh Whittle